RESEARCH POSITION

1. Co-Founder and Associate Director December 2025- Present
   Experience-Related Neuroplasticity (ERN) Institute, Canada
   - Develop and lead an interdisciplinary research program connecting applied linguistics, bilingualism, language learning, cognitive science, and experience-related neuroplasticity.
   - Design and conduct empirical research using experimental, quantitative, corpus-based, and interdisciplinary methods, contributing to study design, data analysis, manuscript development, and scholarly dissemination.
   - Establish interdisciplinary research collaborations and develop open-science infrastructure, including the ERN Meta-Analysis Studio and Open Meta-Analysis Data Repository.
   - Identify external funding opportunities and contribute to grant development and research funding strategies to support the Institute's research programs and growth.
   - Co-founded ERN Press and serve as Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Experience-Related Neuroplasticity (JERN), overseeing editorial policy, peer review, scholarly standards, and journal development.
2. Summer Research Intern at WIDA, University of Wisconsin Madison Summer 2025
   - Research Project: Individual Score Report (ISR)
   - Main Tasks: literature review, interview data transcriptions, qualitative analysis using MAXQDA, analysis, writing-up a manuscript based on the project, presenting the results
   - Supervisor: Alicia Kim, Ph.D.
3. Research Assistant, English Department, Iowa State University Summer 2023
   - Book editing (English Grammar Book)
   - Supervisor: Bethany Gray, Ph.D.
4. Research Assistant, Language and Arts Department, Yogyakarta State University 2013-2015
   - Research project: Training on the Implementation of Children Public Speaking "Show and Tell" through Classroom Action Research to Kindergarten and Elementary School Teachers of all Districts in Yogyakarta Province, Indonesia
   - Supervisor: Dr. Tadkiroatun Musfiroh
